1. The crown is me, and I am the crown now; crowned a mighty crown, I am only. A one is complete. Replete is my name, countenance now; completed, repleting many now. A onelove that's become many that's become one, the one I am he is, it is, now is, the crowning ceremony of me; -less not; I'm the me'd one me'ing others. I've given my life for the gospel's sake to go abated'truncated no more. I'm the completer, untruncater. I'm the mobilizer of all things me; unilaterally not, I give crowns now, out to others, who've won them, adored me, slept with love alone.
